Dear Mr. Altman,

This letter is in response to your August 5, 2010, request for review of a manuscript titled, "The Adventures of Hoover The FBI Dog: Hoover Travels the World," pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) (Manual of Administrative Operations and Procedures, Part I, 1-24 and 26.1 through 26.4).

The manuscript was reviewed pursuant to the terms of the PRP and it was concluded that nothing contained in the document fell within a restricted area of disclosure. Therefore, there is no objection to your providing the remarks, as presented, for publication.

Note that this review is conducted per policy outlined in the FBI Prepublication Review Manual and does not constitute approval by the FBI for you to engage in actual publication, sale or other use of the publication. Our findings have only considered the type and implications of the release of information contained in your [Insert: manuscript, book, article...etc as appropriate] with regards to Bureau publication and Security policy. Your publication must also comply with the Standards of Ethical Conduct for the Executive Branch, including limitations on compensation for current employees writing about FBI cases or activities. Compliance with prepublication review policy does not relieve you from the obligation to comply with other applicable FBI and Office of Government Ethics regulations or policies that may apply to your proposed or possible use of this submitted work. Prior to taking any further action with respect to this work consider all applicable regulation, with particular attention to the following:

- Ethics and Integrity Program Policy Implementation Guide (Ethics Guide), Section 4.8 and 4.9 (FBI employee involvement in outside employment and outside activities)
- Ethics Guide Chap 7 (Political Activities);
- Ethics Guide 4.8.2.5; 5 C.F.R. §2635.805 (Service as an Expert Witness);
- Ethics Guide Section 4.9 (Teaching, Speaking and Writing); and,
- MAOP §20-28.3 (Administration and Requirements of PTAP).

As your work will likely fall into the Ethics rules and may also impact the mission of the Office of Public Affairs, a copy of this letter is forwarded to that office and the Office of Integrity and Compliance for their information.

Dear Mr. Altman,

This letter is in response to your August 5, 2010, request for review of a manuscript titled, "The Adventures of Hoover The FBI Dog: Hoover Travels the World," pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) (Manual of Administrative Operations and Procedures, Part I, 1-24 and 26.1 through 26.4).

The manuscript was reviewed pursuant to the terms of the PRP and it was concluded that nothing contained in the document fell within a restricted area of disclosure. Therefore, there is no objection to your providing the manuscript, as presented, for publication.

Note that this review is conducted per policy outlined in the FBI Prepublication Review Manual and does not constitute approval by the FBI for you to engage in actual publication, sale or other use of the publication. Our findings have only considered the type and implications of the release of information contained in your manuscript with regards to Bureau publication and security policy. It is recommended that you consult with the Office of General Counsel concerning the use of proceeds derived from the sale of the book.

As your work will likely fall into the Ethics rules and may also impact the mission of the Office of Public Affairs, a copy of this letter is forwarded to that office and the Office of Integrity and Compliance for their information.

Re: Manuscript titled, "The Agony in the Garden—An FBI Agent's Plea for Prayers"

Dear Ms. Bustamante,

This letter is in response to the November 17, 2009, submission for review, pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) (Manual of Administrative Operations and Procedures (MAOP), Part I, 1-24 and 26.1 through 26.4), of your manuscript titled, "The Agony in the Garden—An FBI Agent's Plea for Prayers."

The manuscript was reviewed pursuant to the terms of the PRP and it was concluded that nothing contained in the submission fell within a restricted area of disclosure. Therefore, there is no objection to your making the manuscript, as presented, for publication.

Note that this review is conducted per policy outlined in the FBI Prepublication Review Manual and does not constitute approval by the FBI for you to engage in actual publication, sale or other use of the publication. Our findings have only considered the type and implications of release of information contained in your outline with regards to Bureau publication and Security policy. Your publication must also comply with the Standards of Ethical Conduct for the Executive Branch, including any applicable limitations on compensation. Compliance with prepublication review policy does not relieve you from the obligation to comply with other applicable FBI and Office of Government Ethics regulations or policies that may apply to your proposed or possible use of this submitted work. Prior to taking any further action with respect to this work consider all applicable regulation, with particular attention to the following:

- MAOP §§1-9, 1-16 and 20-6; 5 C.F.R. §§2635.802 and 803 (Participation in Non-Federal Entities and Outside Employment);
- MAOP §1-18 (Political Activities);
- MAOP §1-27; 5 C.F.R. §2635.805 (Service as an Expert Witness);
- MAOP §1-16.2; 5 C.F.R. §2635.807 (Teaching, Speaking and Writing); and,
- MAOP §20-28.3 (Administration and Requirements of PTAP).

As your work may also impact the mission of the Office of Public Affairs, a copy of this letter and your work have been forwarded to that office for their information.

Dear Mr. Gray,

This letter is in response to your July 8, 2010 notice of an upcoming interview with the Discovery Channel July 22, 2010, pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) (Manual of Administrative Operations and Procedures (MAOP), Part I, 1-24 and 26.1 through 26.4), of your comments with regards to the Dos Palmas Resort, Palawan Island, Philippines kidnapping, May 2001.

The following guidelines are pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP)(Manual of Administrative Operations and Procedures, Part I, 1-24 and 26.1 through 26.4).

Please be advised that any discussion of matters relating to your period employment with the FBI that may involve pending cases, grand jury, classified information, and other information, the disclosure of which could violate criminal laws or Department of Justice or FBI policy. In addition, please be advised that the FBI will not approve the disclosure of:

- A. Information protected from agency disclosure by the Privacy Act;
- B. Information this is classified or the disclosure of which could otherwise harm national security;
- C. Information that reveals sensitive law enforcement, intelligence, or counterintelligence techniques, sources or methods; or that reveals the sensitive, confidential, or proprietary techniques, sources, or methods of other agencies or governmental entities;
- D. Information that would reveal grand jury material protected from disclosure by Rule 6(e) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure;
- E. Information that would reveal the identity of a confidential source or informant;

Mr. John Gray

- F. Information that relates to any sensitive operational details or the substantive merits of any ongoing or open investigation, inquest, probe, prosecution, appeal, or case;
 - G. Information that consists of the proprietary information of another, including trade secrets;
 - H. Information pertaining to wiretaps or intercepts protected or regulated or protected by Title III (Title 18, U.S.C., Sections 2510-2520);
 - I. Information pertaining to currency transaction reports regulated or protected by Title 31, U.S.C., Section 5319;
 - J. Tax return information regulated or protected by Title 26, U.S.C., Section 6103;
 - K. Information pertaining to contractor bids or proposals or source-selection information before the award of the procurement contract to which the information relates;
- L. Information protected from disclosure by any other federal statute or regulation; or,
- M. Information exempt from disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act (Title 5, U.S.C. Section 552) unless the material is clearly already in the public domain. (MAOP, Part I, 1-24(5)(a)1.)

If you have any questions please call [redacted] at 540-868-1697.

b6 -2

The FBI asks that you submit a brief outline of your presentation for prepublication review prior to your appearance on July 22nd, in that way, we hope to ensure that inadvertent disclosure of classified or sensitive information does not occur. I am certain that you understand the remaining sensitivities in this case. To expedite matters, we are contacting CTD to identify any specific areas of concern.

Should you have any questions, please contact [redacted] at 540-868-1697.

Re: overview titled, "Public Service - Private Price FBI & I;
A Semi-authorized Auto-Bio anecdotal & Learning Memoir"

Dear Mr. Johnston

This letter is in response to the August 9, 2010, submission for review, pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) (Manual of Administrative Operations and Procedures (MAOP), Part I, 1-24 and 26.1 through 26.4), of your overview titled, "Public Service - Private Price FBI & I; A Semi-authorized Auto-Bio anecdotal & Learning Memoir".

This overview was reviewed pursuant to the terms of the PRP and it was concluded that nothing contained in the submission fell within a restricted area of disclosure. Final approval though cannot be granted for the manuscript in totality until a review has been conducted on 'the final' manuscript.

Should you have any questions, please contact [Redacted] at 540-868-1697.
Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.

Dear Mr. Joyner,

This letter is in response to the April 13, 2010, submission for review, pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) (Manual of Administrative Operations and Procedures (MAOP), Part I, 1-24 and 26.1 through 26.4), of your request to be a guest on AMERICAN HEROES RADIO.

The interview is formally approved. However, please be advised that any discussion of matters relating to your employment with the FBI may involve pending cases, grand jury, classified, and other information, the disclosure of which could violate criminal laws or Department of Justice or FBI policy. In addition, please be advised that the FBI will not approve the disclosure of:

- A. Information protected from agency disclosure by the Privacy Act;
- B. Information that is classified or the disclosure of which could otherwise harm national security;
- C. Information that reveals sensitive law enforcement, intelligence, or counterintelligence techniques, sources or methods; or that reveals the sensitive, confidential, or proprietary techniques, sources, or methods of other agencies or governmental entities;
- D. Information that would reveal grand jury material protected from disclosure by Rule 6(e) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure;
- E. Information that would reveal the identity of a confidential source or informant;
- F. Information that relates to any sensitive operational details or the substantive merits of any ongoing or open investigation, inquest, probe, prosecution, appeal, or case;

Mr. Charles R. Joyner

- G. Information that consists of the proprietary information of another, including trade secrets;
- H. Information pertaining to wiretaps or intercepts protected or regulated by Title III (Title 18, U.S.C., Sections 2510-2520);
- I. Information pertaining to currency transaction reports regulated or protected by Title 31, U.S.C., Section 5319;
- J. Tax return information regulated or protected by Title 26, U.S.C., Section 6103;
- K. Information pertaining to contractor bids or proposals or source-selection information before the award of the procurement contract to which the information relates;
- L. Information protected from disclosure by any other federal statute or regulation; or,
- M. Information exempt from disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act (Title 5, U.S.C. Section 552) unless the material is clearly already in the public domain." (MAOP, Part I, 1-24(5)(a)1.)

In addition, you may include your position as a biographical detail if it is given no more prominence than other significant biographical details, and if it is accompanied by a reasonably prominent disclaimer advising that the views expressed in the interview do not necessarily represent the views of the FBI.

Re: Outline for chapter titled, "Transnational

Dear Mr. Marvelli,

This letter is in response to the December 31, 2009, submission for review, pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) (Manual of Administrative Operations and Procedures (MAOP), Part I, 1-24), of your outline for a chapter title, "Transnational Organized Crime."

The outline is formally approved. However, please be advised that any discussion of matters relating to your employment with the FBI may involve pending cases, grand jury, classified, and other information, the disclosure of which could violate criminal laws or Department of Justice or FBI policy. In addition, please be advised that the FBI will not approve the disclosure of:

- A. Information protected from agency disclosure by the Privacy Act;
- B. Information that is classified or the disclosure of which could otherwise harm national security;
- C. Information that reveals sensitive law enforcement, intelligence, or counterintelligence techniques, sources or methods; or that reveals the sensitive, confidential, or proprietary techniques, sources, or methods of other agencies or governmental entities;
- D. Information that would reveal grand jury material protected from disclosure by Rule 6(e) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure;
- E. Information that would reveal the identity of a confidential source or informant;
- F. Information that relates to any sensitive operational details or the substantive merits of any ongoing or open investigation, inquest, probe, prosecution, appeal, or case;

Mr. David A. Marvelli

- G. Information that consists of the proprietary information of another, including trade secrets;
- H. Information pertaining to wiretaps or intercepts protected or regulated by Title III (Title 18, U.S.C., Sections 2510-2520);
- I. Information pertaining to currency transaction reports regulated or protected by Title 31, U.S.C., Section 5319;
- J. Tax return information regulated or protected by Title 26, U.S.C., Section 6103;
- K. Information pertaining to contractor bids or proposals or source-selection information before the award of the procurement contract to which the information relates;
- L. Information protected from disclosure by any other federal statute or regulation; or,
- M. Information exempt from disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act (Title 5, U.S.C. Section 552) unless the material is clearly already in the public domain." (MAOP, Part I, 1-24(5)(a)1.)

In addition, you may include your position as a biographical detail if it is given no more prominence than other significant biographical details, and if it is accompanied by a reasonably prominent disclaimer advising that the views expressed in the interview do not necessarily represent the views of the FBI.

Re: Screenplay titled, "Another Day"

Dear Ms. Osborn,

This letter is in response to your May 26, 2010, request for review of your screenplay titled, "Another Day", pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) (Manual of Administrative Operations and Procedures, Part I, 1-24 and 26.1 through 26.4).

The article was reviewed pursuant to the terms of the PRP and it was concluded that nothing contained in the submission fell within a restricted area of disclosure. Therefore, there is no objection to your providing the article, as presented, for publication.

Note that this review is conducted per policy outlined in the FBI Prepublication Review Manual and does not constitute approval by the FBI for you to engage in actual publication, sale or other use of the publication. Our findings have only considered the type and implications of the release of information contained in your [Insert: manuscript, book, article...etc as appropriate] with regards to Bureau publication and Security policy. Your publication must also comply with the Standards of Ethical Conduct for the Executive Branch, including limitations on compensation for current employees writing about FBI cases or activities. Compliance with prepublication review policy does not relieve you from the obligation to comply with other applicable FBI and Office of Government Ethics regulations or policies that may apply to your proposed or possible use of this submitted work. Prior to taking any further action with respect to this work consider all applicable regulation, with particular attention to the following:

- Ethics and Integrity Program Policy Implementation Guide (Ethics Guide), Section 4.8 and 4.9 (FBI employee involvement in outside employment and outside activities)
- Ethics Guide Chap 7 (Political Activities);
- Ethics Guide 4.8.2.5; 5 C.F.R. §2635.805 (Service as an Expert Witness);
- Ethics Guide Section 4.9 (Teaching, Speaking and Writing); and,
- MAOP §20-28.3 (Administration and Requirements of PTAP).

Ms. Gina L. Osborn

As your work will likely fall into the Ethics rules and may also impact the mission of the Office of Public Affairs, a copy of this letter and your work have been forwarded to that office and the Office of Integrity and Compliance for their information.

In addition, you may include your current title or position as a biographical detail if it is given no more prominence than other significant biographical details, and if it is accompanied by a reasonably prominent disclaimer advising that the views expressed in the article do not necessarily represent the views of the FBI.

Dear Dr. O'Toole,

This letter is in response to the August 29, 2010, submission for review, pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) (Manual of Administrative Operations and Procedures (MAOP), Part I, 1-24 and 26.1 through 26.4), of your foreword to Ms. Joann Hoffman's book on the kidnapping of Charles Geshke.

The foreword was reviewed pursuant to the terms of the PRP and it was concluded that nothing contained in the submission fell within a restricted area of disclosure. Therefore, there is no objection to your making the submitted version of the foreword available for publication.

You may include your former title or position as a biographical detail if it is given no more prominence than other significant biographical details, and if it is accompanied by a reasonably prominent disclaimer advising that the views expressed in the article do not necessarily represent the views of the FBI.

Should you have any questions, please contact [Redacted] at 540-868-1697.

Re: manuscript titled, "Mobsters in Our Midst
The Civella Crime Family"

Dear Mr. Ouseley,

This letter is in response to the July 8, 2010, submission for review, pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) (Manual of Administrative Operations and Procedures (MAOP), Part I, 1-24 and 26.1 through 26.4), of your manuscript titled, "Mobsters in Our Midst The Civella Crime Family".

This manuscript was reviewed pursuant to the terms of the PRP and it was concluded that nothing contained in the submitted portion fell within a restricted area of disclosure. As you are aware, information concerning the identities of informants is extremely sensitive. We determined that the identity of Michael Ruffalo is public knowledge and may be released. We would request that you give particular scrutiny as to whether any other informant identity would be compromised in the manuscript. In any event, final approval cannot be granted for the manuscript in totality until a review of the final version has been conducted.

Should you have any questions, please contact [redacted] at 540-868-1697.
Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.
